CONSIGNMENT FEES

ITEM TYPE	CONSIGNMENT FEE	DEDUCTED FROM THE SALE PRICE BEFORE THE FEE
New sets	25% of Net Sales	Sales tax, marketplace fees and postage
Minifigures (any condition)	25% of Net Sales	Sales tax, marketplace fees, postage, and the cost of any replacement parts ordered
Bulk bricks	25% of Net Sales	Sales tax, marketplace fees and postage
Used sets	40% of Net Sales	Sales tax, marketplace fees, postage, and the cost of any replacement parts ordered

Net Sales means the final sale price received for an item, minus any sales tax collected, postage, and the marketplace fees charged by eBay, BrickLink, Brick Owl, etc. For used sets and minifigures, the cost of any replacement parts ordered is also deducted. Consignor receives Net Sales minus the consignment fee.

New sets: A set is considered new if it is factory sealed, exactly as it left the factory, with no broken seals. This also includes sets without a box that are 100% complete with all parts still in their original sealed bags. A sealed set with a damaged box still counts as new for consignment fee purposes, but will usually sell for less than a set in an undamaged box or one with only basic shelf wear.

Minifigures are charged 25% of Net Sales regardless of condition. If a minifigure needs replacement parts because of cracks, chips, stains, smears, smudges, bite marks or missing pieces, the cost of those parts is deducted from Net Sales.

Bulk bricks: LEGO that cannot reasonably be parted out and completed into sets. This includes bins, totes and other containers of LEGO pieces; small or large portions of sets; custom builds; and individual pieces that do not belong to a set that can reasonably be completed and is worth more than $10 based on its six-month sales average.

Used sets: Each used set is fully disassembled, checked piece by piece against the official parts list, and completed with replacement parts where needed before it is listed. The higher fee covers the hours of hands-on sorting, cleaning and inspection it takes to turn a used set into a complete, verified listing that buyers can trust and that sells for considerably more than an as-is set.

TERMS

1. Ownership. Consignor keeps ownership of every item until it is sold. Title passes directly from Consignor to the buyer at the time of sale.
2. Consignor's guarantees. Consignor guarantees that they are the lawful owner of every item on the Consigned Items List, that they have the right to consign them, that the items are not stolen, and that they are genuine LEGO products and not counterfeit, knock-off or third-party pieces. Stud City Bricks may refuse any item, and may return any item found not to meet these guarantees at Consignor's expense. Consignor agrees to cover any loss, cost or claim Stud City Bricks incurs because an item did not meet these guarantees.

TERMS (CONTINUED)

3. Shipping and pick-up. Stud City Bricks will pay the postage to ship consigned items to its facility using its UPS or FedEx accounts, or will pick items up free of charge where pick-up is available. If Consignor wants any items sent back, it is Consignor's responsibility to notify Stud City Bricks and to pay any return shipping charges, either upfront or deducted from future sales. Stud City Bricks will insure inbound shipments for their estimated value; if a shipment is lost or damaged in transit to Stud City Bricks, it will file the claim with the carrier and pay Consignor the full amount recovered.
4. Shipping supplies. When an item sells, the postage charged by the carrier to ship it to the buyer is deducted from Net Sales, as described on page 1. All other shipping costs, including boxes, packing materials, labels, and delivery to the carrier, are paid by Stud City Bricks and are never deducted from Consignor's Net Sales.
5. Intake check. Stud City Bricks will have two weeks from the day items are delivered or picked up to check them against the Consigned Items List, confirming the count and whether each item is new or used. Stud City Bricks will notify Consignor of any differences, such as missing items or items that do not meet the definition of new. The Consigned Items List will be corrected to match what was actually received, and the corrected list will be used for all fees and statements.
6. Listing and pricing. Stud City Bricks will list items on eBay, BrickLink, Brick Owl or other sales channels of its choosing. Items will be priced at approximately their average sold price over the previous six months, or in some circumstances higher based on seasonality or market demand. Stud City Bricks does not guarantee that any item will sell, how quickly it will sell, or the price it will sell for.
7. Slow-moving items. If an item has not sold within 12 months of being listed, Stud City Bricks may lower its price below the six-month sales average, or may ask Consignor to collect the item as described in the Unsold items section.
8. Used set verification. Used sets are disassembled, inventoried and checked for completeness. Missing or damaged parts are ordered as needed, and their cost is deducted from Net Sales as described on page 1. If a set cannot reasonably be completed, Stud City Bricks may sell it as an incomplete set or sell its parts separately, and the used set fee of 40% of Net Sales will apply.
9. Fees locked in. The consignment fees on page 1 apply to every item on the Consigned Items List for as long as it is consigned, and will not be changed for those items unless both parties agree in writing.
10. Monthly statements and payment. Stud City Bricks will send Consignor a monthly consignment statement listing the items sold, the sale price and Net Sales of each, the consignment fees, and the amount due. The first payment will be made one month after the first item sells. This waiting period allows time for the buyer to receive the item and for any returns, disputes or marketplace payment holds to clear before funds are paid out. After the first payment, Consignor will be paid monthly for all items sold during the previous month, using the payment method on page 1. If the amount due for a month is less than $25, it will be carried over and added to the next month's payment.
11. Sales records. On request, Stud City Bricks will provide proof of the sale price, marketplace fees and postage for any item Consignor has been paid for, such as an order screenshot.
12. Buyer returns and chargebacks. If a buyer returns an item, receives a refund, or files a dispute or chargeback after Consignor has been paid for that sale, the amount paid to Consignor for that item will be deducted from Consignor's next monthly statement. If there are no further sales to deduct it from, Consignor agrees to repay that amount within 30 days of being notified. Returned items go back into consignment inventory.
13. Statement review. Consignor should review each monthly statement when it is received. Any question or error must be raised in writing within 30 days of the statement date; after that, the statement is considered accepted.
14. Care of items and limit of liability. Stud City Bricks will store and handle consigned items with reasonable care while they are in its possession. Consigned items are kept in a secured facility with locked doors and monitored by security cameras. Even with these precautions, Stud City Bricks is not responsible for loss or damage caused by fire, flood, theft, natural disaster or other events outside its control, and does not insure consigned items; Consignor may insure items independently. If an item is lost or damaged through the fault of Stud City Bricks, Consignor will be compensated at the item's average sold price over the previous six months, and Stud City Bricks will not take a consignment fee on that amount. This compensation is the full extent of Stud City Bricks' responsibility for that item.
15. Unsold items. Consignor may ask for unsold items to be returned at any time by giving written notice (email is fine). Items already sold or under a pending sale are not affected. Return shipping is paid by Consignor as described in the Shipping and pick-up section. If a used set is withdrawn after Stud City Bricks has begun disassembling, cleaning or verifying it, Consignor will reimburse the cost of any replacement parts already ordered for that set plus a preparation fee of 20% of the set's average sold price over the previous six months, and the set will be returned in its current state, which may be disassembled and bagged.
16. Items not claimed. If this agreement ends and Consignor does not collect, or arrange and pay for the return of, their unsold items within 90 days after written notice from Stud City Bricks, those items will be considered abandoned. Stud City Bricks may then sell them and keep the proceeds, or otherwise dispose of the items.
17. Taxes. Consignor is responsible for reporting and paying any income taxes on the payments they receive. Stud City Bricks may ask Consignor to complete an IRS Form W-9 and may issue any tax forms required by law.

TERMS (CONTINUED)

18. Closing or sale of the business. If Stud City Bricks closes or sells its business, it will give Consignor written notice, return all unsold items at its own cost, and pay any amounts owed to Consignor within 30 days.
19. Relationship of the parties. Consignor and Stud City Bricks are independent parties. Nothing in this agreement makes them partners, employees or agents of each other, except that Stud City Bricks acts on Consignor's behalf for the limited purpose of selling the consigned items.
20. Notices and signatures. Notices under this agreement may be given by email to the address each party has provided, and each party will keep its contact information up to date. This agreement may be signed electronically, and electronic signatures and copies are as valid as originals.
21. Term. This agreement begins on the date it is signed by both parties and continues until all items are sold or returned, or until either party ends it with written notice. Payment for items sold before the end date will still be made under these terms, and the sections on buyer returns, limit of liability, unsold items and items not claimed continue to apply after the agreement ends.
22. Disputes. The parties will first try to resolve any disagreement informally. Any legal action related to this agreement will be brought in the courts of Lake County, Ohio, including small claims court where eligible.
23. Entire agreement. This agreement and the Consigned Items List are the complete agreement between the parties. Any changes must be in writing and signed by both parties. If any part of this agreement is found unenforceable, the rest remains in effect. This agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Ohio.

SIGNATURES
